Relationship Breakdown

Relationship Breakdown

The breakdown of your marriage or relationship is one of the most traumatic and upsetting times of your life.

At such an emotionally vulnerable time, it's important to seek expert legal advice. Our experienced and sympathetic team will be able to give you clear and comprehensive advice.

Whatever your relationship problem, we offer a wide range of ways to help you. Our specialist areas include:

- Divorce and separation including Agreements and Nullity of Marriage
- Domestic violence
- Children matters, including support, contact and residence disputes
- Financial issues including distribution of pensions
- Property disputes between cohabiting couples
- Inheritance disputes for dependants
- Living together agreements
- Civil partnerships

Why Instruct Us?

We have an excellent reputation for giving sound and realistic advice. We will provide you with constant support to help ease your anxiety.

As members of the Resolution and Children Panel, our Family Law Team have many years of experience working in this area. By instructing us, we will help you through this difficult time.

What Happens Next?

We've made it really easy for you to contact us by offering very flexible appointments to suit your needs.

We will talk through your options and look at what you want to achieve. We will explain the process and options to you, and how the court might approach the various issues in your case.

How Much Will it Cost?

Our rate varies on the complexity of your case. However, we do offer a free half an hour consultation to assess your situation.

Depending on the circumstances of your case, further work maybe carried out on a fixed fee basis or charged at an hourly rate.

We also undertake cases under the Public Funding Scheme via the Legal Aid Agency and we assess at the outset your eligibility for Legal Aid.

We will always make it clear from the outset as to the likely cost of your case and we will keep you fully informed should anything change that may affect this.
